

Joint Candidate and Sponsor Project #2

Wonder and Awe

Candidate and Sponsor Names (print): _____

Person being interviewed (print): _____

Signature of person interviewed _____

This interview is meant to be repeated 3 times. 1. Decide on a person to interview that you think has a good relationship with God and has the gift of wonder and awe. 2. The candidate interviews the sponsor. 3. The sponsor then interviews the candidate.

Use the following questions to get you going. Have the person your interview sign your paper.

1. Describe how you see God working in your life?
2. What is your favorite image of God?
3. When are times that you have felt close to God?
4. When are times when you knew you really needed God's help?
5. What are some of your favorite ways to pray?
6. What do you and God talk about?

7. When have you ever felt that you've seen God working through the actions of another person?

8. When did God become more than and an old man on a throne?

9. When you meet God face to face in heaven, what do you hope Jesus will say to you?

10. If you could give me one piece of advice for my life, what would it be?

Write a paragraph answering these questions:

- What did you learn from this person?
- What did you learn about them and their relationship with God?
- What did you learn from this person that can help you with your relationship with God?

Joint Candidate and Sponsor Project #1

Gift of Courage

Candidate and Sponsor Names (print): _____

Person being interviewed (print): _____

Signature of person interviewed _____

What is Courage?

1. Read from the Bible the following passages. Write a paragraph on each passage on how the person in the passage demonstrated courage.
 - a. Daniel, Chapter 6
 - b. Acts of the Apostles 6:8-7:60
2. Find an example in today's news that shows someone using the gift of courage.

Use the following questions to get you going. Have the person your interview sign your paper. This interview is meant to be repeated 3 times. 1. Decide on a person to interview that you think has a good relationship with God and has the gift of courage. 2. The candidate interviews the sponsor. 3. The sponsor then interviews the candidate.

1. Has your understanding of courage grown or changed since you were a child?
2. Give some role models you had who taught you what courage looks like.
3. Who is the most courageous person you've know and why do you feel that they are courageous?
4. What advice can you give that will help me in situations when I may need to exercise the gift of courage?

Write a paragraph answering these questions:

- What did you learn from this person?
- What did you learn about them and their relationship with God?
- What did you learn from this person that can help you with your relationship with God?

